

2:00 in his two-year-old form arrived when Walnut Hall Farm. His owner, Willie Strang, accuracy ♦

the colt in d of the
and of s mile at
n White hish and behind

uld drive
ecord of
"Yes, if
it com-
ertaxing
e think
d noth-ger his one this a some-

year-old
ace 1929,
vered it
against trainers

from or the other
ferred
-mile
n the
com-ding

Today's Sports

BASEBALL

New York Giants vs. Brooklyn Dodgers, double-header, at Polo Grounds, Eighth Avenue and 157th Street, 2:05 p. m.
Homestead Grays vs. Newark Eagles, at Ebbets Field, Bedford Avenue and Sullivan Place, Brooklyn, 2 p. m.

DOG SHOW

Westchester Kennel Club show, at Rye, N. Y., 10 a. m.

GOLF

Invitation tournament, at Leewood Club, Tuckahoe, N. Y., 9 a. m.
Invitation tournament, at Wheatley Hills Club, East Williston, L. I., 9 a. m.
Member-guest tournament, at Crescent Club, Huntington, L. I., 9 a. m.

SOCCER

Brookhattan vs. Irish Americans, at Starlight Park, East 177th Street and Tremont Avenue, the Bronx, 3 p. m.
Brooklyn Hispancs vs. Hatikvoh, at Brooklyn Oval, Fifth Avenue and Twenty-seventh Street, Brooklyn, 3 p. m.

TENNIS

National championships, at West Side Tennis Club, Forest Hills, L. I., 12 noon.

YACHTING

Long Island Sound Y. R. A. regatta, off Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club, Oyster Bay, L. I., 1 p. m.

old Garden thirty-five year ago that Potter paid $1,000 for his first and only trotter, a two-year-old called Rhythmic Bel modestly catalogued

Leaves Misses Contact
but Shows Good Form in Passing, Kicking Drill

By Al Laney

Al Blozis, the towering tackle from Georgetown, joined the New York Football Giants at Baker Field yesterday just in time to get into one of the toughest scrimmages of the year and the way in which he comportd himself herein makes it almost certain that the Army All-Stars will see a lot of him next Saturday afternoon. The same thing, except for the time of arrival, applies to big John Chickerneo, another new man.

The eyes of the coaches and of the few spectators as well, were on these two men during the hour-and-a-half scrimmage, for it was obvious that they can give a lift to the Giants that can make the team more formidable against the soldier stars. Chickerneo played on the so-called "White" team, filling the role formerly assumed by Nello Falaschi, while running with two backfields on the offense and backing up the left side of the line on defense.

Since he has been out of football since 1939 his timing on the block assignments was a bit off but he was really racking them up. On the defense, where unfamiliarity with assignments is no handicap, Chick-

HERALD-TRIBUNE

AMERICAN HERALD-TRIBUNE